

Edoardo Panziera
Ionada GmbH

Edoardo Panziera is the founder and Managing Director of Ionada GmbH, a manufacturer of marine exhaust gas cleaning systems, with facilities in Germany, Netherlands, and China. He received his Mechanical Engineering Master Degree from the University of Toronto, specializing in design for environmental engineering.

Edoardo has more than 20 years of experience in developing emission reduction technologies for the marine, automotive, aerospace industries, having worked on projects with Ford, GM, Chrysler, Bombardier, Weir Minerals, 3M and clean tech companies such as Hydrogenics, Hyroad Industries, and SuntoWater. Edoardo holds numerous patents, including several patents for Ionada.

Edoardo is supported by a number of marine professional at Ionada, having successfully completed marine exhaust gas cleaning systems trials and installations for Van Oord, MSC, Bontrup, CMB and FRS Group.